

Green Economics Institute Calendar of Events Autumn 2014

Please enquire about all our events by emailing us at greeneconomicsinstitute@yahoo.com

Call for Papers for the Following Four Green Economics Institute Events this autumn

Events	Dates	Venue	Description	Bookings Now Being Taken
Population, Migration, Refugees, Health and the Demographic Timebomb, Older People, women, Social and environmental justice and human rights?	Friday 21 st November 2014	Trinity College, University of Oxford	This very topical subject will be the subject of a one day workshop and a book and proceedings.	Bookings are now open Call for papers for the conference proceedings, speakers and workshops and Call for papers for the book are now open greeneconomicsinstitute@yahoo.com Please email to register your interest and send in your ideas We are currently producing a book and proceedings as an output of this conference.
Biodiversity, Preventing ecocide and protecting species, Animal Protection. The importance of nature	Saturday 22 nd November 2014	Trinity College, University of Oxford	We are producing a book on this subject Edited by Anna Wainer of Imperial College.	Call for Papers for the conference is Now Open The book is in production and we are still accepting papers for the book and for the conference. Please email greeneconomicsevents1@yahoo.co.uk to register and for conference registration fees.

And poses the question is technology being used to avoid lifestyle changes that we might need? The Importance of Greening for Technology, and Technology for Greening ! Including: Green IT and the issue of Space Junk Climate Adaptation and experiment Cloning Fracking Satellite systems	Friday November 28th 2014 10.00- 17.00	Trinity College, University of Oxford	This event explores Technological Solutions to the current crises of global environmental change including energy and climate dilemmas. And poses the question is technology being used to avoid lifestyle changes that we might need? It also looks at the creeping privatisation of almost every aspect of life and the earths resources presenting facts and figures. It invites participants and speakers to discuss and plan for Green Economics' solutions to a robust future for democracy.	Call for papers now open Please register your interest in this event. greenecomicsinstitute@yahoo.com We will be collating a book on this subject and a special issue of our academic journal
Climate Change, The Kanute Project- Rolling Back the Tide of Climate Change Renewables or Green Crap? Did the governments negligence cause the flooding crisis? A one day Conference Building up to the COP 20 Kyoto Protocol Conference in Peru this November where we have a delegation. This is a participatory conference with keynote speeches. We are creating a book: The Economics of Water, rivers and the sea: Green Perspectives for the Commons	November 29th 2014 10.30- 17.00	Trinity College, University of Oxford	One of the biggest protests ever and one of the most important conferences has happened now about climate change. We look at the state of the art knowledge and what to do about it. The Philosophy of Black Swan Events and Climate and our energy policies: Climate Change and governance, now that climate change is happening now An event presenting policies for Fracking, Renewables and Black Swan Events with Energy and Climate Change. Local and community energy solutions, life style	Call for Papers and speakers Now Open This event will consist of workshops and speakers and will lead to two new books. One on Renewables and one on Fracking Please email greenecomicevents1@yahoo.co.uk Please pre register changes, technology. Understan ding flooding, heatwaves and jetstream changes.

--	--	--	--	--