

Conference Announcement /Call for Papers/Bookings now open

Reclaiming Economics for all people everywhere, other species, nature, planet and its systems

Green Economics Institute

Save the date in your calendar

Green Economics Institute presents

7th Annual Green Economics Conference at the University of Oxford

Green Economy: Reform and renaissance of economics and its methodology- Green Economics-the solutions for the 21st century
Green Economy: Rethinking Growth: RIO+20

19th-20th-21st July, 2012 being held at Mansfield College, the University of Oxford

Speakers from all around the world and from different backgrounds
Topical recent and current issues will be featured and debated at the Conference
Call for papers/ Reserve a place
www.greeneconomics.org.uk
greeneconomicsevents@yahoo.co.uk

Topical recent and current issues will be featured and debated at the Conference. We invite you to submit and present your papers on most recent topics and to propose to debate and present about any aspect of Green Economics and World Economics News. CALL for PAPERS:

- | | | |
|--|---|---|
| 1. Crisis | 21. March of climate change- extraordinary extremes of climate a summary | smart money being invested in Africa today |
| 2. Sovereign debt | 22. Kyoto Cop understanding Durban and preparing for Qatar | 42. Green Econmics and climate change – naratives? |
| 3. Austerity, Cuts, and stimulus packages. Keynes and Minsky Austerity or Stimulus – this is big dilema for everyone or green economy? | 23. Previous recessions - what can we learn? | PIGGS, Ireland -and the Irish economy |
| 4. Green economics | 24. What is corect role of national treasurys budgets banks chancellors? | 43. Predictions for UK economy for 2012. Are such big cuts actually possible- what is historical evidence |
| 5. Intergenerational equity | 25. Public sector- education, health care cuts | 44. Eastern European economies -what do we learn from the crisis? |
| 6. Theory vs Fact | 26. Modelling -does it work? | 45. BRICS role and character of state capitalism |
| 7. Protests | 27. The profession and trajectory of economics careers | 46. Brazil |
| 8. Arab spring | 28. Do we need economics for environment or for business or business for environment | 47. Russia |
| 9. Emergence of China | 29. Institutional questions | 48. The new role of the IMF |
| 10. Near shoring - reinstating the real economy in Europe | 30. The crisis how its playing out | 49. Fiscal compact and fiscal consolidation - good or bad? |
| 11. GDP and other statistics, data, role of econometrcs | 31. Real business cycles vs Keynes? | 50. Technology |
| 12. Cross border flows | 32. Inflation | 51. Technique of an economist - techniques of a green |
| 13. Learning from economics history | 33. What is economics? Price? | 52. Herd instinct and market invesetment |
| 14. Capital markets-City. Massive city bonuses- are they right -can they be stopped | 34. Poverty | 53. What is economics for? |
| 15. Taxation. Investment tax. Offshore tax havens and regulations | 35. Supply and demand management | 54. Macro Micro – economics? |
| 16. Transport high speed rail- investment in the railway | 36. Planet management | 55. Political or mathematical economy? |
| 17. Why have car sales dipped for the first time- are people switching to public transport | 37. Cost benefit | 56. What skills do economists really need? |
| 18. Commodity prices | 38. Philosopy of science | 57. What skills do greens need? |
| 19. Oil and fossil fuels and tax $40 dollars a barrel? | 39. Green built environment | 58. Banking and the economy and treasury and chancellors-what decisions do they make ? |
| 20. Role of state in regulating polution | 40 Womens economics and womens unequal pay and poverty- towards a gendered global green economy | 59. Open Book Exam |
| | 41. Voices of Africa and changes in Africa- why is the | 60. Overseas Study Trip and short courses |

The Call for Speakers and Papers is now open. Please email us as soon as possible to ensure you reserve a place greeneconomicsevents@yahoo.co.uk

Exciting Speakers from all around the globe, those already confirmed include:

Dr. Natalie West Kharkongor, India; Dr. Hazel Henderson, USA and Brazilia; Monowaruz Zaman, Canada; Dr. Muhammad Subhan, Malaysia; Dr. Wolfgang Hoeschele, Germany; Steven Mandel, UK; Dr. Jeffrey David Turk Phd, UK, Belgium; Professor Jack Reardon, USA; Miriam Kennet, CEO, UK; Ewa Larson M.GEI, Chair of Green Women in Sweden; Norfaryanti Kamaruddin M.GEI, Malaysia; Peter Kirby-Harris M.GEI, UK; Kristina Jociute, Lithuania; Henry Cox, UK; Rosita Bujokaite, Lithuania; Ben Armstrsong - Haworth, UK; Dr. Michael; Briguglio and Maria Brown, Malta; Phd Janik Bogna, Poland; GEF

Share green ideas and methodologies with international experts in the field, with academics and green business leaders. Presentations, Panel Discussions, keynote speeches, workshops, from MPs, Nobel Prize winners, Economics Professors, engineers, Business Directors, Campaigners and many others.

